Plaintiff,

COMPLAINT

LONG ISLAND OFFICE

-against-

Civil Action
Docket #

BNP PARABUS;
And Liberty Life Assurance Company of Boston

SUMMONS ISSUED

Defendants.

X CV 13 4381

Plaintiff Kim Evans, complaining of the defendant, by her attorneys,
GREY & GREY, L.L.P., respectfully alleges and shows this Court;

Statement of Jurisdiction

FEUERSTEIN, J

1. That this action arises under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (hereinafter "ERISA"), U.S.C., Title 29 § 1132(e) as hereinafter more fully appears.

Facts

TOMLINSON, M

2. That prior to October 5, 2004, the plaintiff, who resides at 155 Bay Ave., Brightwaters, NY, was employed by BNP PARABUS. and/or its subsidiaries and predecessor corporations (hereinafter collectively referred to as "BNP").
3. As a BNP employee he was the beneficiary of a Long Term Disability
Policy administered by LIBERTY LIFE ASSURANCE of Boston
(Hereinafter referred to as "LIBERTY"),

5 That upon information and belief, Defendant BNP, as part of their employee benefit plan, adopted and/or issued a group long-term disability benefits policy issued and/or administered by Defendant LIBERTY .

6. That upon information and belief Defendants issued a long-term disability benefits policy, which is subject to the provisions of ERISA.

7. That upon information and belief, at all times hereinafter mentioned, the plaintiff was a qualified and vested participant under Defendants' Group Long Term Disability Plan and/or Policy.. (hereinafter referred to as "The Plan"

8 That upon information and belief, Defendant LIBERTY was the administrator of The Plan.

9. That the plaintiff was a beneficiary under The Plan.

10. That on or about April 28, 2010 , the plaintiff became disabled within the provisions of The Plan.

11. That upon information and belief, the plaintiff has fully complied with all the conditions precedent for receipt of long-term disability benefits issued by Defendants..

12. That upon information and belief, all of the benefits due to the plaintiff in accordance with the policy issued by Defendants were and are vested and nonforfeitable.

13. That upon information and belief, the Plaintiff's claim for long-term disability benefits is claim #2515129.

14. That BNP and LIBERTY accepted claim #2515129 and paid the claimant for a period of disability commencing April 28, 2009

15 Thereafter Defendant's commenced a review of plaintiff's claim for continuing long-term disability benefits and provided a letter dated September 6, 2011 which denied benefits as of September 7, 2011 , advising that claimant is not disabled.

16. That the plaintiff provided a timely appeal of Defendants denial of his claim for continuing long-term disability benefits and submitted additional medical, vocational and testimonial evidence for review.

17. That on or about June 14, 2012, Defendant LIBERTY upheld its decision to deny the plaintiff's claim for continuing long-term disability benefits finding that he is not medically disabled despite his history of neck surgery and unremitting pain and loss of function..

18 . That June 14, 2012 letter advised the plaintiff that the prior denial was upheld and no further administrative appeals were available. Therefore, denial of the plaintiff's claim for continuing long-term disability benefits subsequent to September 6, 2011 by Defendants became administratively unappealable under "THE PLAN".

19. That upon information and belief, the plaintiff has exhausted all the Administrative remedies established by Defendants.

20. That the plaintiff has been and remains disabled within the meaning of THE PLAN.

First Cause of Action
